

Camping ~

Applications are welcomed for camping during the Cup Match holiday.

CRITERIA AND PROCESS

West End Development Corporation

WEDCO, a body incorporated under the provisions of the West End Development Corporation Act 1982, was established to assist in the commercial and residential development of the West End. With over 220 acres of land spanning across five islands; in addition to, Bermuda's premier Cruise Ship Port and a heavy line up of well-established commercial businesses across a range of industries, inclusive of retail, semi-industrial, hospitality and service, WEDCO continues to develop the land it has been entrusted with, keeping sustainability and future growth in mind, while creating a plethora of investment opportunities for local and overseas developers, entrepreneurs and/or venture capitalists. As the Royal Naval Dockyard continues its transformation into Bermuda's new commercial hub, WEDCO continues to reshape the entire West End, creating a vibrant "live, work, play" community.

Camping

WEDCO welcomes applications for camping during the Cup Match holiday only, which is defined as the Wednesday before Emancipation Day to the Sunday following Mary Prince Day (5 days).

Each applicant may apply for one camp site plot only in the following permitted areas: Grey's Cove, Parson's Bay or Lodge Point Park.

Criteria & Requirements

In order to be considered for a camping permit, the applicant must not be in arrears or have a poor credit history with WEDCO. Furthermore, any successful camping applications from persons, whose account goes into arrears after booking will have the booking withdrawn and any payments made will be forfeited.

Successful Applicant Requirements

- Applicants must abide by the laws and health regulations established by the Bermuda Government and the Department of Health.
- The applicant is solely responsible for obtaining all necessary permissions, permits and licenses required.
- The applicant is responsible for delivering the camp site back to WEDCO in the same condition it was provided.
- The applicant is responsible for waste management during the camping experience and for neatly securing and storing waste for collection after the permitted camping period ends.

General Terms & Conditions

- Ticket sales, food sales, beverage sales, product/service sales, illegal drugs, balloons, generators, bonfires and amplified music are not permitted at any time.
- WEDCO reserves the right to inspect the permitted site at any time to ensure regulations are being adhered to.
- At no time is a successful applicant permitted to make alterations to WEDCO property without advanced written consent from WEDCO.
- WEDCO reserves the right to charge the successful applicant after the permitted camping period has ended if the camp site plot is not provided back to WEDCO in the same condition it was given.
- WEDCO accepts no liability for any personal injury or injury to participants and third party vendors, loss or damage to

Royal Naval Dockyard

Built by Royal decree to defend British superiority on the seas, the Royal Naval Dockyard is today a resplendent place of discovery. Within the walls of this nineteenth century fortress, now exists an invitation for adventure: attractions, water sports, dining, shopping, events and more. By daylight or moonlight, there is so much to discover.

As Bermuda's commercial cruise ship hub and largest, most visited on-island attraction, the Royal Naval Dockyard provides critical mass in excess of 10,000 people per day in the summer season; in addition to, panoramic views of the ocean, fast ferry links to Bermuda's capital city of Hamilton, with its eclectic mix of retail and international business, and the old town of St. George, Bermuda's former capital and UNESCO World Heritage site.

belongings, equipment, decor or belongings of third party suppliers or participants sustained while on property, during, before and after the camping experience.

- WEDCO reserves the right to remove any items left after the agreement period is complete and to dispose of the items or charge the successful applicant accordingly for storage.
- WEDCO will not sign for or secure any deliveries. If deliveries are made and the successful applicant is not on site, WEDCO will not be held liable for items. The same holds true for materials not collected after the camping experience has ended.

Application Process

All applications for camping are subject to the following process:

1. Review the Camping Criteria and Process document
2. Fill out and submit the Camping Application
3. Applicants will be contacted via email with application status
4. Payment is submitted upon signing of the Camping Permit.

All camping applications must be submitted no later than two weeks prior to the week of Cup Match or risk not being considered.

Please note each individual application for camping will be considered on its own merit. An application for camping must be submitted each year even if the applicant camps yearly.

No application shall be deemed successful unless and until the applicant and WEDCO have signed the Camping Permit. No comment by any employee of WEDCO or any other circumstance affects this position.
